

1. What is Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)?

'FDI' means investment through equity instruments by a person resident outside India in an unlisted Indian company; or in 10% or more of the post issue paid-up equity capital on a fully diluted basis of a listed Indian company.

In case an existing investment by a person resident outside India in equity instruments of a listed Indian company falls to a level below 10% of the post issue paid-up equity capital on a fully diluted basis, the investment shall continue to be treated as FDI. 'Fully diluted basis' means the total number of shares that would be outstanding if all possible sources of conversion are exercised.

2. What is the regulatory and governing framework for FDI in India?

Foreign investment in India is regulated under codified foreign exchange regulations, sector specific policies/regulations, government policies as well as International agreements. Primarily, foreign investment is regulated through the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 as amended from time to time (FEMA) and rules/regulations issued thereunder. The main objective of FEMA is to regulate, consolidate and amend the law relating to foreign exchange to facilitate foreign investment, external trade and payments and promote the orderly development and maintenance of foreign exchange market in India within the broad policy framework on foreign investment issued by the Government from time to time. Presently, the FDI regime in India is primarily governed by the Consolidated Foreign Direct Investment Policy Circular dated 28.08.2017, as amended through various Press Notes issued by the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT)(FDI Policy), sector specific policies/regulations, Foreign Exchange Management (Non-Debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 dated 17.10.2019 notified by the DEA, Ministry of Finance (FEM Non-Debt Instruments Rules 2019) which superseded the erstwhile Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of Security by a Person Resident Outside India) Regulations, 2017 Notification No. FEMA 20(R)/2017-RB dated 07.11.2017 (FEMA 20R Regulations).

3. What is the procedure for mode of payment, remittance of sale/maturity proceeds and reporting of FDI?

The instructions on mode of payment, remittance of sale/maturity proceeds and reporting requirements are stipulated under the FEM Non-Debt Instruments Rules 2019 and Foreign Exchange Management (Mode of Payment and Reporting of Non-Debt Instruments) Regulations, 2019 vide notification no. No. FEMA. 395/2019-RB dated 17.10.2019 issued by the RBI.

Indian entity which has received indirect foreign investment shall comply with the entry route, sectoral caps, pricing guidelines and other attendant conditions as applicable for foreign investment.

9. How is total foreign investment in an Indian company/LLP calculated?

The guidelines for calculation of total foreign investment, both direct and indirect in an Indian company/LLP, at every stage of investment, including downstream investment, are detailed under Annexure 5 of the FDI Policy.

10. Whether the amount of consideration in case of share transfer among resident and non-resident shareholders can be paid on deferred basis?

Yes. In case of transfer of equity instruments between a person resident in India and a person resident outside India, an amount not exceeding 25% of the total consideration may be: (i) paid by the buyer on a deferred basis within a period not exceeding 18 months from the date of the transfer agreement; or (ii) may be settled through an escrow arrangement between the buyer and the seller for a period not exceeding 18 months from the date of the transfer agreement; or (iii) indemnified by the seller for a period not exceeding eighteen months from the date of the payment of the full consideration, if the total consideration has been paid by the buyer to the seller. The total consideration must be compliant with the applicable pricing guidelines.

11. What are the entry routes for FDI?

Permissible FDI can be made under “Automatic route” or “Government route”.

“Automatic route” means the entry route through which investment by a person resident outside India does not require the prior approval of the Reserve Bank of India or the Central Government.

“Government Route” means the entry route through which investment by a person resident outside India requires prior Government approval and foreign investment received under this route shall be in accordance with the conditions stipulated by the Government in its approval.

Besides the entry conditions on foreign investment, the investment/investors are required to comply with all relevant sectoral laws, regulations, rules, security conditions, and state/local laws/regulations.
