

RAJASTHAN PARTNERSHIP RULES, 1952

1. Short title :—(a) These rules may be called the Rajasthan Partnership Rules, 1952.

(b) They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Rajasthan Gazette.

2. Definitions :—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context—

(a) "the Act" means the Indian Partnership Act, 1932.

(b) "Firm" means a body of persons consisting of two or more partners, to which the Act applies.

(c) "Section" means a section of the Act.

(d) "Document" includes statements, intimations and notice prescribed by the Act, and

(e) "Registrar" means a Registrar of Firms appointed under Section 57 of the Act.

3. Forms of Statement :—The statement required to be sent or delivered to the Registrar under Section 58 shall be in Form A appended to these rules and be verified in the manner prescribed for verification of plaints in civil suits.

4. Forms of intimations and notices :—Statements, intimations and notices required under Section 60, 61, 62 and 63 shall respectively be in Forms B, C, D, E and F appended to these rules.

5. Mode of lodging documents :—Documents either on payment of the prescribed fee be lodged with the Registrar in person or sent to him by post under registered cover along with the prescribed fee. No fact shall be recorded in the register on a mere oral notice.

6. Examination of documents received by the Registrar :—If any documents required to be delivered to the registrar for registration is found to be incomplete or defective in any of the particulars required by law, the Registrar shall return it for rectification and he shall not register or file it until all the requirements of the law have been complied with. When the Registrar is satisfied that the provisions prescribed in respect thereof have been duly complied with, he shall record an entry of the document in the register and shall then file the same.

7. Filing of documents :—A separate file shall be maintained in respect of each firm in which the documents received by the Registrar relating to the said firm shall from time to time be filed. No documents shall be filed by the Registrar unless the proper fee prescribed therefor has been paid.

8. Acknowledgment and registration of documents :—(a) On every document filed under this Act the Registrar shall endorse the following particulars, namely :

- (i) the number borne by the firm on the register;
 - (ii) the name of the firm;
 - (iii) the description of the documents;
 - (iv) the serial number of the documents; and
 - (v) the date of filing.
- (b) On filing any documents along with the payment of the fee prescribed therefor Registrar shall furnish the firms concerned with a certificate in the following form under his signature and seal of his office.

in red ink to the serial number of the new entry shall be made against the amended entry.

12. Procedure on dispute :—If any person wishes to dispute any entry in the register such person shall give the Registrar, notice in writing, that he disputes the said entry and the Registrar shall make a remark to the effect at the end of the then existing entries and shall also make a remark in red ink in the remarks columns against the entry so disputed.

13. Inquires and investigations by the Registrar :—The Registrar may in his discretion institute such inquires or make such investigation in respect of any matter as may in his opinion be necessary for the proper performance of his duties and the administration of the act. In particular when a dispute arises amongst the several partners of a firm, the Registrar may in his discretion call upon any of the partners or all of them to produce any original deed, document or such other evidence as he thinks fit in order to ascertain the rights of the respective parties.

14. Conditions of Inspection :—The Register shall be open to inspection on written application. The file of the documents kept in the Registrar's office shall similarly be open to inspection by any person applying therefor: provided the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he has sufficient interest in the contents of the document of which he applies for inspection and that a mere inspection of the Register will not serve his purpose.

All inspections under this rule shall take place during business hours in the presence of the Registrar or some person appointed by him in that behalf.

15. Grant of copies :—(a) As provided by Section 66 of the Act, the Registrar shall, on application, furnish to any person on payment of the prescribed fee a copy of any entry or portion thereof in the Register of Firms.

- (b) Copies of the document kept in the Registrar's office shall, on application and payment of the prescribed fee, be furnished by the Registrar, to any person who satisfies the Registrar that he has sufficient interest in the contents of the documents of which he applies for copies and that mere copies of any entry in the register will not serve his purpose.
- (c) All copies under this rule shall be applied for during business hours in writing. The copies shall be certified by the Registrar to be true and sealed with the seal of his office.
- (d) In this rule "copies" includes extracts.
- (e) The fee for issuing a copy of any document in the custody of the Registrar shall be four annas (now twenty-five paise) for each hundred words or part thereof. Other fees shall be such as may be prescribed separately by the Government in rules issued under sub-section (1) of Section 71 of the Act.

16. Fees Book :—The Registrar shall keep a book called the "Fees Book" in which shall be entered day by day all fees realised under the Act and the rules thereunder. All fees so realised shall be paid into the Government Treasury.

17. Elimination of documents and registers :—(1) On the dissolution of a firm, an entry to the effect shall be made opposite the firm's name in the register by writing the word "dissolved" in red ink and noting the date of its dissolution; and at the expiration of five years from the date of the entry of dissolution in the register, the file and papers relating to such firm may be destroyed; provided that its certificate of registration and the dissolution order shall be made opposite the firm's name in the register by writing the word "dissolved" in red ink and noting the date of its dissolution; and at the expiration of five years from the date of the entry of dissolution in the register, the file and papers relating to such firm may be destroyed; provided that its certificate of registration and the dissolution order shall be retained permanently.

(2) The following register shall be retained permanently.

- (a) Register of firms.
- (b) Alphabetical index, prepared under rule 12.
- (c) File register.

Other registers may be destroyed after five years.
